Debts I earnestly wish to be paid.

I owed Mr. Elliott piratically about 20 Mr. Carrington's accounts and all made up near Mr. Carrington's office. I owe 100 £ on bond the which I carry my widow but she must give the best security she can. Mr. Carrington's bill and account on the partnership accounts Mr. Carrington's bill and 50 £ but in his security is included a sum of money for the term reports and an other the term reports I never had and the 50 £ sum was included in the notes I last gave him for 50 £ of which I paid 30 £ Mr. Carrington a small bill I owe Mr. Carrington a legacy sum it was much more regulating but as my health is I have paid Mr. Carrington several bills lately but they are entered in his book and none in my presence I owe Mr. Carrington 20 £ and no more he has got papers but they should have been given up 4 or 5 or 6 to Mr. Carrington in bond street since I owe Mr. Carrington 50 £ he has been greatly patient I owe Mr. Carrington a bill he has too much trouble to do wrong I owe Mr. Carrington in South Street a bill I know not how much I owe Mr. Carrington sometimes since gave a note of 10 £ which he waited cash for it never was raised I have mislaid the note but he owes nothing on it nor is it indorsed and I shall Mr. Carrington will claim 20 £ but let me direct him to collect from Mr. Carrington's bill of 20 £ for the present dated Aug 31. 1793, Jn. W. Tolson

I think it right to add my last will and Testament I am in an uncertain state I therefore request my father and my friend Mr. Carrington to look upon this as a will and Testament I hereby declaring that after payment of all my debts the rest and residue of my estate up to my Executors or Administrators for the benefit of my family I alter all former wills and
